HOLIDAY PARKS

The Causeway Coast

There is simply so much to do on Northern Ireland's Causeway Coast that it is hardly surprising it has been attracting visitors for well over 200 years. A perfect blend of activity and relaxation awaits you.

Travel the winding coast road from Castlerock to Ballycastle and discover quiet harbours and hamlets nestling beside the bustling resorts of Portstewart and Castlerock. Enjoy non-stop family fun or opt for the quiet life and lose yourself in the landscape. The dramatic coastal scenery is famous the world over with sheer cliff faces skirted by golden sands and crashing surf. A journey inland will reveal tranquil forests and parklands lying next to the busy shopping towns of Coleraine and Ballymoney. The excellent golf courses, rivers and beaches of the area attract golfers, anglers and water sport enthusiasts from far and wide catering for all abilities. On the Causeway Coast there are an abundance of amenities, restaurants and nightlife for all ages. The warmth of the welcome and friendliness of the people will ensure a special holiday experience which will draw you back time and time again.

A special welcome awaits you at our holiday parks situated in the lively resorts of Portstewart and Castlerock. The beauty of Portstewart is yours to enjoy with its two miles of golden sands, superb golf courses, fishing, dramatic coastal walks, rock pools and dinghies for the children to delight in. When the sun goes down on Portstewart you can be sure the fun doesn't stop. Night owls everywhere will love the choice of lively restaurants, bars and night clubs.

Whatever your requirements we feel confident that we have the accommodation to suit you and your family. There are three holiday parks to choose from all in close proximity to each other and ideally located in the town...
